PLAINTIFF’S RESPONSE TO DEFENDANTS’ CAMPBELL COUNTY, TENNESSEE AND DAKOTA WILLIAMS’ MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Comes now the Plaintiff, by and through counsel, and hereby responds in opposition to Defendants Campbell County, Tennessee and Dakota Williams’ Motion for Summary Judgment. This is a case wherein Campbell County’s failure to provide any training on the proper use of force and intervention to protect detainees/inmates resulted in a culture of violence within the Campbell County Jail. This culture of violence directly led to the brutal beating of Nathan Ling, a pre-trial detainee, and the denial of medical care for several hours. The record reflects that genuine issues of material fact exist, which preclude judgment as a matter of law. The record further reflects admissions from the sheriff and officers that a culture of violence and intimidation existed among the jail staff, and that officers received no training on the proper use of force, intervening to protect detainees, and providing medical care to injured detainees. The defendants’ motion should also be denied because Dakota Williams is not entitled to qualified immunity.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order denying Defendants Campbell County, Tennessee and Dakota Williams' Motion for Summary Judgment.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Tony Seaton
